ANNUAL REPORT 2006/2007

Hetton Town Council Annual Report for 2006-2007 is now available for anyone interested in knowing more about the work of the council.

The report is full of interesting facts about what the council, and its 21 members, have been doing on behalf of local people. It also includes details of the council's accounts and how it has spent money on behalf of residents.

To get your copy of the Annual Report call in at Hetton Town Council offices at the Hetton Centre or phone Town Clerk John Price on (0191) 553 6600.

Hetton Town Council has four wards with a total of 21 members elected by you to represent your interests.

Full contact details of all councillors, including their addresses, are available in a special 'Know your Councillors' leaflet. You can pick up a leaflet at Hetton Town Council offices, Hetton and Easington Lane Libraries, the Hetton Centre and local doctors' surgeries. Their details are also available on the council's website: www.hettontowncouncil.org.uk
